Press Release

Date: 18 February, 2022

The second mentoring session for the Bangladesh Stockholm Junior Water Prize (SJWPBD) 2022 was held on 12th February, Saturday, 2022. The session was held on the online communication platform Zoom at 7:30 pm and was also broadcast via SJWPBD's Facebook page for broader spread and audience. More than 150 participants across the country registered for the session and about 100 participants attended the session. The core purpose of this session was to enlighten the interested participants about SJWPBD 2022 and equip them with further knowledge for preparing themselves for the competition. We had two honorable mentors to conduct the session. They were Mahmudul Hasan, Research Associate at DC Water and Didarul Islam, Two times national champion of SJWPBD 2018 & 2019. The session was hosted by Nazah Maisha and Sanjida Polin Maria, volunteers, House of Volunteers Bangladesh.

Nahiyan Siam, President, HoVDU started the session and welcomed the guests for facilitating the session. Thereafter, the hosts took the floor for the brief introduction of the guests. Then Mahmudul Hasan was given the floor. He conducted the session with a presentation where a detailed idea of project paper making was portrayed. Afterwards, two times national champion Didarul Islam greeted the participants and encouraged them sharing his journey. He also answered many questions from them.

Lastly, the hosts thanked the mentors for their presentations and guidelines towards the participants. They also greeted the participants to join the session.The whole session was informative and well equipped for the participants to engage themselves with SJWPBD and SJWP.
